

Scholarships Granted by Endowment Committee

The Endowment Committee is pleased to announce that $1,000 scholarships have been awarded for the academic year 2003-2004 to Juliette Siebels, Rose Bornn-Gilman and James Baird for undergraduate work, and a scholarship from the Holmoe Fund has been granted to John Ittu for seminary work. Juliette will be entering her senior year this fall at Concordia University in Irvine, CA. Rose will be a sophomore at Trinity College in Washington. James also attends Trinity College and will be entering his sophomore year majoring in Biblical Studies. John has been accepted at Luther Seminary and will start his first year this fall. All four young people have been active in our youth program and participate in worship when they are home from college. All plan to enter careers in church work. We extend our good wishes for their continued academic success.
