

THINGS OF NOTE FROM SALEM'S MUSIC MINISTRY

What's Perking with Salem's "Coffee House"?

All sorts of good entertainment are being planned for Salem's new "Coffee House" series. These will be Friday or Saturday night events and will include a variety of presentations...different kinds of music, comedy, perhaps drama...but all highly enjoyable. Coffee and other beverages will be available for purchase to enjoy as you applaud the entertainment either in the Fireside Room or the upper Courtyard. Brent Keast, Kimberly King & Dr. Jay Brunot delighted us with the first "Coffee House" on August 22nd. That was a fine indication of all the good times to come. More information is on the way.

Who Will Appear in our New Concert Series?

The happy success of last year's Concert Series is a great incentive for planning another series for this year...and those plans are in process. The search is on for the same quality performers and content as last year. You can be certain you'll find each a very rewarding event. The applause received last year from our community as well as our congregation is sure to increase this year. Get ready to enjoy yourself!

Choirs Begin the New Season

After taking the summer off, both Sanctuary Choir and Schola Cantorum start rehearsals in September. Have you thought about singing with one of the choirs? Adults interested in learning more about Sanctuary Choir would be welcome to attend our Thursday night rehearsal at 7 PM in the choir room. To find us, use the parking lot gate, walk down the stairs and cross the playground to the school building central stairway. The choir room is on the second floor to your left as you climb the stairs. If you have ever thought about singing in choir, this would be a great time to join us – the beginning of the new season. The "Back to Choir Potluck" is Thursday night, September 4th, 6:15 PM in the Fireside Room. Talk to director Marshall Bowen for more information.

Schola Cantorum, our children's choir, begins rehearsal on Wednesday afternoon, September 10th. Jubilate is for children grades 1 through 3 and rehearses at 3:30. Cantate Domino is for children grades 4 and up and rehearses at 4:30. Childcare is available between school and rehearsal time. For more information and to sign up, see director Cheryl Speer on Rally Day, September 7th.
