

THINGS of NOTE from SALEM'S MUSIC MINISTRY

BELLS, BELLS, BELLS

IN CONCERT AT SALEM ON SUNDAY, MARCH 21ST!

The Concordia College Handbell Choir is coming back to delight us with another dazzling display of their virtuosity. They've been a big hit each time they've performed for us and we look forward to being grandly entertained once again.

THE PERFORMANCE WILL BEGIN AT 7 PM

These highly skilled musicians will perform on five octaves of handbells and handchimes, presenting a rich variety of music that will include everything from some of your favorite hymns to new, original handbell compositions. The members of Concordia's Handbell Choir have polished their performance skills in concerts they've given coast-to-coast as well as presentations in Europe and Asia. The ensembles will be under the direction of Nancy Jessup who has been at Concordia, Irvine since 1993.

YOU CAN JOIN THEM AS A RINGER FOR THE FINALE

The concert will conclude, as always, with audience members who volunteer to do so ringing the accompaniment to the evening's closing hymn. It's your big chance!

MEET THE PERFORMERS AT THE RECEPTION
IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE CONCERT

We'll gather in the Fireside Room for refreshments and fellowship and the chance to chat with these young, talented musicians.

CHILD CARE FOR AGE 3 & UNDER DURING CONCERT
