

THINGS of NOTE from SALEM'S MUSIC MINISTRY

HOORAY! HOORAY! JAY WILL PLAY IN CONCERT AT SALEM, APRIL 25TH!

You must excuse our exuberance, but we are totally delighted to have our own Dr. Jay Brunot presenting a concert on Sunday, 4/25 at 7 PM. We are so privileged to have him play for our worship each Sunday. Having him present an entire concert of Bach in addition is certainly reason for jubilation! Mark your calendar now!

IT'S ALL BACH "BACH TO BACH" ON ORGAN AND HARPSICHORD

Jay will perform Bach's Passacaglia and Fugue in C Minor, Italian Concerto, Christ ist Erstanden (Christ Is Arisen), Prelude and Fugue in D Minor, and Little Fugue in G Minor. A CD of Jay performing these works will be available for sale after the concert.

THE OFFERING RECEIVED WILL GO TO SALEM'S YOUNG MUSICIAN SCHOLARSHIP FUND

In addition to helping fund young musicians' studies, Salem is also extending a scholarship in the missionary field. A contribution will be made to the scholarship of a Tanzanian music student associated with Salem's missionaries, the Bangsunds, who is currently working on his music degree.

A RECEPTION FOLLOWS THE CONCERT

Did you know that Jay had a BS in Mechanical Engineering and worked for 7 years designing nuclear power plants BEFORE he became Dr. Jay Brunot, the brilliant musician? Ask him about that, his performance tours in Europe, his playing a mass at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, and his audience with the Pope... among many other stellar venues...when you chat with him while munching and sipping refreshments after the concert. CHILD CARE FOR AGE 3 & UNDER DURING THE CONCERT

PALM SUNDAY MINI-MUSICAL "Gather at the Gate" by Betty Ann Ramseth

The April 4th worship (both services) will begin with this festive procession re-enacting Jesus' entry into Jerusalem. It will be led by Cantate Domino (Children's Choir Gr 4-6) with support by Sanctuary Choir, Sunday School and Acolytes. You won't want to miss this meaningful beginning to Holy Week.
