THE SPELTZ FAMILY ARE PRIZE WINNING MUSICIANS

David and Connie Speltz have maintained the long-standing admiration and faithful following of Southern California chamber music aficionados that began when they won the coveted first prize in the 1973 Coleman Competition.

Their talented sons Brendan and Brook have carried on the family tradition by winning esteemed prizes in the Young Artists Peninsula Festival. Brook, a senior in high school and student of Eleonore Schoenfeld, won the 2004 ASTA competition and the Brentwood Symphony Young Artist Competition. Brendan, who studies with Linda Rose, traveled to Russia and Canada last summer working and performing in music festivals there.

The family will perform music by Haydn, Bruch, Kreisler and Arensky.
