

SALEM LUTHERAN SCHOOL

Ghada Huleis, Principal

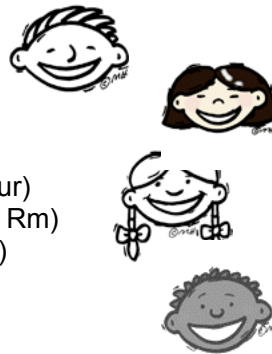

Mobile Productions will be visiting Salem on Tuesday, April 4, presenting “The Amazing World of Light” with assemblies at 8:45 and 9:45 am. Students will see the many properties of light and then be treated to a high-end laser light demonstration that will have its own music accompaniment.

Congratulations to sixth grader Marla Macarr and third grader Haley De Sales for being chosen as finalists in the “I Love My Neighborhood” poster contest. They will be honored in a ceremony at 4:30 pm on April 5 along with their parents, teachers and Mrs. Huleis! In addition, Salem will receive the award for the highest participation among private schools in this contest for the third year in a row!

PUT ON YOUR RUNNING SHOES, THE JOG-A-THON IS COMING! Our annual PTO Jog-a-thon at Hoover High School will be held on Saturday, April 8. Grades JK through 2nd will run at 8:30 am and grades 3rd through 6th take off at 10:00 am. The Jog-a-thon is not only a fundraiser, but a great time of fun and fellowship as well.

If you are staying in town for Easter Vacation and looking for something fun for your children to do, consider the Day Care Program. Lots of great activities are planned and enrollment is under way. Look for a flyer in your child’s backpack or in the School Office.

Wishing you a blessed Lenten season and a joyous Easter.
